To the Travelling Public.

We are indebted to the public attention of J. P. TEEKEAN, Esq., our excellent County Clerk, for the tax statement, which appears in another column. It is an interesting document.

DRAWDOWN.—We learn from Capt. Ray that as two men were yesterday painting the steamboat Jaguar, on the side near the river, the platform on which they were standing gave way, and they fell into the water and were drawn down.

ANOTHER DRAWDOWN.—A laborer in the employ of the Memphis Company, was drawn down from an empty gondola boat into a full one, yesterday, when in the gondola the latter slipped under his foot, causing him to fall into the water, after he was not seen again.

ANOTHER BALE.—The Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad brought to the city last evening, for Messrs. TITUS & CO., a bale of new cotton from the plantations of C. S. MESSAWEATHER, of Distrito County, Mississippi. It clashed middling fair, and was a clean, nice article.

67.—We observe that our friend, R. F. WADDELL, still in business as a factor and commission merchant. He has associated with him Mr. W. A. BARAN. They are both gentlemen well known to the public, and will give prompt attention to all business entrusted to them.

READY.—Under this head, in another column, it will be seen that an opportunity is offered for full course of instruction in book keeping and penmanship, at half price. Mr. DUXLOR, the teacher, has been too long and favorably known in this community, for further comments.

HAT.—J. N. WADDELL, D. D.—We had the pleasure, yesterday, of greeting this distinguished divine and his scholar, who is on a short visit to the city. He will be seen by our church notices that he will fill the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian Church to-day, at 10 A. M.

Mr. S. T. WADDELL presented us yesterday with a full open bell of cotton, on which we are to attend the sale of our stores. Our friend Captain MARSHALL, of the Southern Captain Triplet, will leave to-morrow evening at 3 o'clock. The reputation of the Southerner is bound to secure for him "the crowd" as rank for the Ohio.

The Daniel Boone, the packet of Vicksburg, is bound for that city to-morrow evening at 3 o'clock. Passengers desirous of the river will find the Daniel a commodious and well officered steamer.
